

Take Care.

Little children, you must seek
Rather to be good than wise,
For the thoughts you do not speak
Shine out in your cheeks and eyes.
If you think that you can be
Cross or cruel, and look fair,
Let me tell you how to see
You are quite mistaken there.
Go and stand before the glass,
And some ugly thought contrive,
And my word will come to pass
Just as sure as you're alive!
What you have and what you lack,
All the same as what you wear,
You will see reflected back.
So, my little folks, take care!
And not only in the glass
Will your secrets come to view,
All beholders, as they pass,
Will perceive and know them too.
Out of sight, my boys and girls,
Every root of beauty starts;
So think less about your curls,
More about your minds and hearts.
Cherish what is good, and drive
Evil thoughts and feelings far;
For, as sure as you're alive,
You will show for what you are.

—ALICE CARY.

DEAR EDITOR:—I see you want us to take up our pens and write, and as I have not written for a long time, I will now comply.

My school commenced on the second Monday in September. I love to go to school. My studies are, Reading, Writing, Spelling, and Arithmetic. Our Sabbath school closed until in March.

Our town is improving fast. Eight buildings went up this summer. They are building a brick school house in town. There is a prayer meeting in the church, and there was church here last Sunday. Rev. Myers preached.

My teacher's name is Newton Jones. He is a good teacher. I like him very much. I have nearly a mile to go to school.

I will ask this question: where did Christ suffer and die?

Hope to hear from the girls and boys through the children's column. Good by for this time.

NELLIE CLARK.

Mooreland, Ind., Oct. 15.

Thank you, Nellie, for your kind letter. But the next time you write for the paper, address it to the Evangelist, Ashland, Ohio, and not to me individually. I am not in the office any more. I am traveling over the country begging money to pay our college debt, and have not been in the office since last August. Let all the other little writers to the Children's Column of the Evangelist, take notice of this item.

I remember Nellie Clark. She lives at brother Raplogle's. When I was at their house, several years ago, they lived near Cambridge City, Ind., and Nellie was only a little bit of a girl. She couldn't begin to write a letter then; but she has been growing since then. Not only larger but also wiser. Seems to me that she is an orphan, or at least that one of her parents is dead. But sister Replogle is a good mother to her, if I am not mistaken; and brother Replogle seemed just as fond of her as if she were his own. I wish all little children who have no parents could have such homes. Hope Nellie will be a good, obedient girl, and continue to learn, and when she becomes a woman will befriend some homeless little one.

I am glad the children are waking up again. We hope they will now keep awake and not go to snoozing again. It looks to me as if some of them had had a regular Rip Van Winkle sleep. Did you ever hear the story of old Mr. Winkle? Will some good story teller relate it to the children? Meanwhile, children let each one of you bring a stick of wood for the fire in our column, and let us keep up a cracking blaze all winter. And let us each try to bring some new kind of wood, or a piece of some new shape. It will not burn well when the wood is all after one pattern; it lies too close together. Don't all tell the same thing, is what I mean, but it takes me so long to tell it. Good by; all be good, and do all the good you can. Write.

H. R. HOLSINGER.

DEAR EDITOR:—I see that I must help my little friends in keeping up our column. I have read real nice little letters written in our column, and some of the papers, many of them too; but of late there are but few. Now if I write but a little, I hope you will excuse me for it will be my first. I can read in the fifth reader and can write and will study geography and arithmetic again when school begins. I am visiting with my uncle Isaac Grubb's at North Liberty now. I have lots of fun with my two little cousins, Homer and Orva. Wish I had a little brother. Papa and Mamma belong to the Brethren Church. We had a good Sunday school at Ankneytown. We had Sunday school in the school house. Next summer I guess we can have Sunday school in the Brethren's new church. Papa and others are working hard to have it finished by that time. I like to go to Sunday school. I want to go to the Christmas Arch at the Brethren Church at Liberty. I think there will be so many nice presents there. I don't know whether I will get any presents or not, but I expect I'll get something.

Ankneytown, O.

Well, Bertie, we are very much pleased to hear from you, and have you write a letter so nicely, and so interesting. I used to see you often, and I am happy to know that you enjoy Sabbath School and going to school. That is right. You will be able to write large and long letters soon. Your friend,

UNCLE A.

The Runaway Knock.

"Teacher," said a bright, earnest faced boy, "why is it that so many prayers are unanswered? I do not understand. The Bible says 'Ask and ye shall receive; seek and ye shall find knock and it shall be opened unto you;' but it seems to me a great many knockers are not admitted."

"Did you never sit by your cheerful parlor fire," said the teacher, "on some dark evening and hear a loud knocking at the door? Going to answer the summons have you not looked out into the darkness, seeing nothing, but hearing the pattering feet of some mischievous boys, who knocked but did not wish to enter and therefore ran away? Thus it is often with us. We ask for blessings but do not really expect them. We fear that Jesus will not hear us, that he will not admit us; and so we go away."

"An! I see," said the earnest faced boy, his eyes shining with a new light dawning in his soul; "Jesus cannot be expected to answer runaway knocks. I mean to keep knocking until he cannot help opening the door."

RELIGIOUS AND EDUCATIONAL.

—Brooklyn has only one church to every 2,624 inhabitants—less than any other city in the United States.

—The late Robert Treat Paine, of Boston, bequeathed $50,000 for the endowment of a chair of practical astronomy at Harvard college.

—Nineteen Sunday-schools are connected with the London Church, of which the Rev Newman Hall is pastor, and these schools at present contain in all 5,000 children.

—There are three Presbyteries in South Carolina, composed almost exclusively of colored people, and in connection with the Northern Assembly. It is thought that the erection of a synod in South Carolina must shortly be the result.

—The Presbyterians, according to a correspondent of the Scottish-American Journal, have determined to establish a church in every New England city where there is a sufficient element which has been educated in the Presbyterian faith.

—The first five or "star" graduates at West Point this year were: Kuhn, Kentucky; Craighill, at large; O'Brien, Massachusetts; Wilcox, Georgia; and Cole, Illinois. This class numbers thirty-nine. The original number was ninety-seven. The class of 1886 numbers eighty-two.

—For an obvious reason I will dismiss the congregation and disperse with the communion service," said Rev. Dr. Leonard, rector of the Episcopal Church at Fairfield, Conn., on Sunday last, as, at the first sounds of the organ, thousands of bees swarmed out of the roof, where they had gone into the honey-making business.

—Haverford College, near Philadelphia, an institution under the care of the Orthodox Friends, is made the residuary legatee of the estate of the late Jacob P. Jones, of Philadelphia. The bequest will amount to half, and perhaps three-quarters of a million. It is made in memory of an only son, who was a graduate of the college.

—In the death of Rev. Daniel D. Whedon, D. D., at Atlantic Highlands, N. J., the Methodist Episcopal Church loses one of its brightest ornaments. An accomplished scholar, a good writer, an able Biblical commentator, he was more than all a devout and humble Christian. The world is better because he lived and labored in it; and surely no higher eulogy could be passed on any man than that.

—The latest declaration of independence has been made in the Friendly Islands, where the King, the Court and 11,000 adherents of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, have severed themselves from the New South Wales Conference and formed the Independent or Free Church of Tonga. The grievance is that the New South Wales Conference would not consent to transfer them to the New Zealand Conference.

Neuralgia of the Face.

Capt. John Orr, Pearlington, Miss., has been a most intense sufferer from facial neuralgia for over twenty years. He has had seventeen operations performed on the nerves—that is, had them divided, cut off close to the bone from which they emerge. But this never did him any good; the most excruciating pain continued without the least interruption. He often wished for death to relieve him of the intolerable pain. The best physicians failed to relieve him. They finally advised him to consult Drs. Hartman & Miller, at the St. Charles Hotel, New Orleans, which he did. They prescribed PERUNA, and in less than a month was entirely relieved of the pain. Before consulting these doctors the least touch to any part of his face or nose would cause the most fearful pain, while now he can blow his nose and wipe his face without the least fear of pain. The captain is grateful beyond measure for this unexpected and unlooked for result.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kenner, 98 Laurel street, New Orleans, has been one of the greatest sufferers from Neuralgia of the face during the past year that we have ever heard of. From morning to night, and from night to morning, there was one constant, racking, tearing, burning pain, extending clear around her head and deep down through every muscle, tooth and bone in her face. No rest and no sleep. All physicians failed to relieve her, as well as all remedies. She was constantly in the most agonizing despair. She called on Dr. Hartman, who said the cause was chronic catarrh. He prescribed PERUNA, and now every pain has left her. She feels like another person and can eat heartily and sleep soundly.

Mrs. C. J. Miles, Gallipolis, O., writes: "Dr. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O. My affliction has been rheumatism, located in the right arm and shoulder, of more than two years' standing, and after trying a great many remedies without any relief, I commenced the use of PERUNA, which, after using three bottles, found a decided change for the better. I continued to use it and now feel entirely well."

Huldah Ward, Wellston, O., writes: "I have been afflicted for years with that dreaded disease, catarrh. I tried a great many different kinds of medicine, but to no effect. I commenced taking your PERUNA about nine months ago; have taken about ten bottles. It is doing me much good. By its continued use I hope to be entirely cured."

Dr. A. B. Lovejoy, Dadeville, Ala., writes: "I have a fine run on your PERUNA and MANALIN. Please send me a lot of books, 'The Ills of Life.'"

PERUNA is sold by all druggists. Price $1.00 per bottle, six bottles for $5.00. If you cannot get it of your druggist, we will send it on receipt of regular price. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, don't be persuaded to try something else, but order from us as directed. S. B. HARTMAN & CO., Columbus, Ohio.
